

MAY 10

LILLOOET DECLARATION DAY

The Líl'wat7úl have never given or sold any of their land to any government or nation. Although settlers and colonial governments marginalized the Líl'wat7úl and stole their land, they never relinquished their right (in law or in their hearts) to their home